Colleen Kaiwai	Kia ora and congratulations on your pregnancy. I have worked as a DHB employed midwife for a number of years and becoming an LMC is the next natural step in providing complete woman centred care. The pregnancy, labour and birth journey is unique to each wahine/woman and her whānau/family and I aim to support this process in partnership with you and your family/whānau. I work in a practice with two other midwives who share similar values and are equally passionate about providing individualised c...	Mobile: +64-225495127

Briar Ferris	Kia ora and congratulations on your pregnancy! I love supporting women to have a healthy, empowered pregnancy and the best start to their journey into parenthood as possible by working in partnership with you to achieve a safe and healthy pregnancy and birth. I enjoy making sure all the important topics are covered and information is provided while having a laugh and discussing any questions you might have. My belief is that pregnancy and childbirth are a normal stage of life and I hope to nu...	Mobile phone: 0278000704
Steph Adams	Congratulations on your pregnancy! With the support of my husband and 3 children, I completed my midwifery training in 2008. As I am a born and bred Gisborne girl it has been my goal to provide care to the women of my hometown. I work in a practice of 5 experienced midwives and provide continuity of care throughout pregnancy, labour, birth and the postnatal period. I offer care at home or the local hospital. Supporting women and their whānau throughout the childbirth journey is one of the mos...	Cell: 027-419-3439
Kendra Mackey	Kia ora and congratulations!! You are about to embark on an amazing journey, whether this is your first baby or an exciting addition to your whānau. I believe strongly in walking beside you and your whānau on your journey to empower, advocate and educate you to achieve the best possible outcome. I provide individualised care across the antenatal, labour and postnatal periods, offering birth in hospital and home settings. With a strong philosophy and understanding of your journey I endeavour...	More : 0210376479
Teresa Buchanan	Kia ora! My name is Teresa Buchanan and I'm a midwife in Te Tairāwhiti. I have a strong belief in the normal processes of pregnancy and birth and it is my goal to empower women and their family through this belief. I provide care for women during pregnancy, throughout labour & birth and up to 6 weeks postnatal. If you have any questions or would like to book an appointment with me please feel free to text or call.	027: 0275848838
Kerri Walser	Since 1998 I have had the pleasure of caring for many hundreds of lovely families across the Tairāwhiti region as they prepared, welcomed and cared for their new baby. They have shown me how unique each and every pregnancy, birth and baby is and helped shape the "gentle hands, strong expertise" midwifery care I provide today. Most of you can expect to have a normal pregnancy and birth. However you will need confidence to harness your inner strength and knowledge of ways to utilise outer support...	Mobile: +64-272522463
Corrina Parata	Tena koutou katoa te whanau whanui. My role as a midwife is as Kaitiaki, caring for wahine, their newborn pepi and including those meaningful to them. I have 5 tamariki myself including 4 mokopuna and I tautoko the kaupapa of 'Whanau Ora'. Being a midwife is more than mahi including manaakitanga, aroha, matauranga, wairuatanga & ngakau mahaki. I am living and providing midwifery care in rural communities of the East Coast. So if you would like to have a korero my contact details ...	Mobile: +64-21760662
